- Monitor law enforcement and correctional activities to identify areas of potential civil liability and recommend to the Sheriff remedial administrative and operational changes; coordinate and monitor the activities of contract legal counsel on special legal projects or civil litigation matters.
- Monitor and review litigation matters against the Sheriff or Sheriff's personnel pertaining to the official duties of the Sheriff.
- Be available on a twenty-four-hour basis to respond to field situations having potential civil liability and initiate investigations to protect the interest of the Sheriff and/or Hillsborough County.
- Monitor legislative activities and propose legislation needed to keep pace with contemporary changes in practice and procedures.
- Review, research, and make recommendations to the Sheriff pertaining to inquiries regarding the use of agency personnel and equipment.
- Review and approve contracts, leases, agreements, or other legal documents that might impose legal liability on the Sheriff for legal sufficiency.
- Review and approve recommendations for assignment of special counsel, experts, or consultants required to prosecute or defend any action by or against the Sheriff and all bills and invoices from contract counsel, court reporters, Clerk of Court, etc., as they relate to current litigation.
- Review and approve Standard Operating Procedures, Sheriff's Orders, and similar guidelines and policies of the Sheriff or Department and Division Commanders for legal sufficiency.
- Conduct legal research and propose legal bulletins and opinions on various criminal justice related topics.
- Serve as liaison with the United States Attorney's Office, State Attorney's Office, and County Attorney's Office on all legal matters of mutual interest and concern.
- Represent the Sheriff in administrative hearings before administrative tribunals involving the Sheriff's Office or its personnel; represent the Sheriff on various committees or attend meetings on the Sheriff's behalf, as directed.
- Conduct training on civil and criminal liability for both in-service and recruit classes.

- Perform all necessary administrative duties as required of the office.
- Prepare the annual budget, audit reports, or periodic financial summaries for the Sheriff regarding the operation of the Legal Office.
- Perform annual or periodic evaluations of personnel assigned to the Legal Office.
- Serve as a member of the Sheriff's staff and attend staff meetings.
- Provide agency guidance on adherence to civil rights laws, process complaints, and maintain oversight of requests for reasonable accommodations.
- Perform other related duties as required.

KNOWLEDGE & ABILITIES
